Mrs.Vaidehi Mhaisapurkar for the applicant.

Shri D.P. Adsule, A.P.P. for the State.

CORAM: V.M. KANADE,J.

DATED: 24.1.2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The applicant is convicted by the trial Court for the offences punishable under sections 498-A and 306 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution case is that the applicant had illicit relations with one Chhaya who was a bank employee. It is the prosecution case that the applicant used to beat his wife deceased Sushama and as a result of said ill-treatment and harassment she committed suicide.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant has taken me through the notes of evidence which are annexed to the application for bail. From the record it appears that there are two issues out of the marriage and the applicant is the only earning member in the family. He was on bail during trial.

4. If application for bail is rejected, two minor children will suffer as there is no other earning member in the family.

5. In view of these circumstances, the applicant be released on bail in the sum of Rs. 5,000/- (five thousand) with one or two sureties in the like amount. Hearing of the appeal is expedited.
